Michigan State University Learning Goals

CSUS 322 – Leadership for Community Sustainability supports the MSU core learning goals of:

Analytical Thinking: You will learn to critically analyze complex information and problems through courses and experiences at MSU and by applying what you learn both in and out of class.

Cultural Understanding: You will learn to deepen your understanding of global and cultural diversity by interacting with others in and outside our diverse campus community and reflecting on your own culture and that of others.
Effective Citizenship: You will learn to be an effective citizen by engaging in opportunities for involvement both inside and outside the classroom.

Effective Communication: Spartans communicate to diverse audiences using speech, writing, debate, art, music, and other media. You will learn how to communicate effectively through your interactions with peers, faculty, staff, and community members at MSU, your coursework, and your reflection on how you’ve changed as you progress toward graduation.

Integrated Reasoning: You will learn to make decisions through integrated reasoning by observing the example set by your fellow Spartans—faculty, professional staff, your peers and student leaders, and our 500,000 Spartan alumni—who are advancing knowledge and transforming lives in innumerable ways. MSU provides you with the space and support to make decisions learn from them and use them to inform your values.

Department of Community Sustainability Competencies

CSUS 322 – Leadership for Community Sustainability supports the Department of Community Sustainability core competencies of:

- Critical thinking: Students will interpret, analyze and evaluate information generated by observation, experience, reflection, reasoning, and communication as a guide to formulate and defend responses to complex sustainability problems.
- Boundary-crossing: Students will identify their own assumptions and biases, recognize new perspectives, and demonstrate the ability to collaborate with individuals and groups whose norms, assumptions and biases are different from their own.
- Civic engagement: Students will develop the knowledge, skills, values, and motivation to participate in civic life.
- Leadership: Students will develop, demonstrate and evaluate leadership practices that contribute to sustainability.
- Initiative and practical skills: Students will demonstrate initiative, including the ability to self-direct and solve problems individually and as participants in larger group efforts.
- Ethics: Students will evaluate and analyze diverse ethical positions on practical sustainability challenges.

Recommended Resources, Materials, and Books:

Other resources as made available by the instructor during the semester.

Assignment #3 – Written Team Report Due Friday, April 20th – End of Day

Class 29 – May 3rd - Final Exam: 3:00 pm– 5:00 pm (155 Com Arts Building)

Testing in assignments:

Assigned papers must be typed, double-spaced, one-inch margins, 12-point font, and pages numbered (Times New Roman or Arial font). For questions regarding writing style, and reference citations, refer to the American Psychological Association (APA) manual and recent editions. All assignments are due on the class date defined below. All assignments will be due prior to the class period described in the calendar above. Late assignments are subject to a 10% deduction for every business day late.

Course Requirements:

Class Attendance:

Attendance and participation are both critical to successful leadership. In many instances showing up is the most critical part of a job; however contributing to the class is even more important. Attendance and participation points will be assessed at the rate of 5 points for each class and will compose 12% (28 classes x 5 pts = 120 Points) of your overall grade.

Assignments:

In Class Exercises (210 points) - There will be six (6) in class exercises (35 points each) that will be either partially or entirely conducted during class. These assignments will build upon readings and class lectures in leadership and community sustainability. The In Class Exercises will be posted on the class D2L course page and are to be uploaded to the appropriate D2L drop box.

The topics are:

ICE - 1. Leadership and Personality Type (using MBTI)
ICE - 2. Sustainable City systems Assignment (In Groups)
ICE - 4. Analysis of innovative sustainable development - Triple Bottom Line Businesses
ICE - 5. Developmental resources needed to assist sustainable development initiatives
ICE - 6. Short and long-term sustainability analysis of a global city or metropolitan area

Community and Leadership Blogs (120 points) - There will be four blogs (30 points each) in which you will view TED Talk(s) and report on your perception of their impact on Leadership, Sustainability or both. You should use a formal writing style for each of the blogs (e.g. well-constructed sentences, correct grammar, spelling, etc.). The Blog assignments will be posted on the class D2L course page and are to be uploaded to the appropriate D2L drop box.
Assignment # 1 (100 points total) - Personal Leadership Assessment and Leadership Journey Report

Part 1 (75 pts): Complete the Leadership Self-Assessment and prepare a separate paper to answer the following questions about your own leadership traits, styles and skills (Due January 18th). The paper should answer the following questions:

- Introduction (Who am I as a leader?)
- What are my best personal leadership strengths and attributes?
- What are my best interpersonal leadership strengths and attributes?
- What are my best group/organizational leadership strengths and attributes?
- What are my best community leadership strengths and attributes?
- What leadership skills do I need to improve upon?
- Summarize in a paragraph what you believe are your key overall leadership strengths and key areas for improvement

Part 2 (25 pts): Prepare a one-page synopsis of your personal leadership journey to this point in your life.

Assignment #2 - Community Leader Interview and Report (100)
Identify an individual leader who contributes to the leadership of a community or an organization and obtain an interview appointment. Prepare a list of questions beforehand that solicits information about his leadership traits, skills, and style. Additionally, inquire about the community he/she serves and gain insights into their thinking about how change happens, the barriers to change, and the leadership requirements for making significant change in the organization and/or community.

Prepare a brief report on your observations, and present your findings to the class. Presentations will be within four learning circles. Turn in the list of interview questions and your observations both in hard copy and by uploading your presentations in the D2L drop box for Assignment #2 (Presentation and report due: March 29).

The final interview report and presentation should include the following:
- Name or explanation of individual(s) observed;
- Context of observation (time observed, location, conditions, etc.);
- Most significant leadership traits, skills and style of individual interviewed and why you came to these conclusions;
- Reflection on how change happens in his/her organization or community;
- Summary of observations

Assignment #3 - Community Sustainability Assessment (200 pts)
In small groups, prepare an 8-10 page comprehensive sustainability analysis of a significant Michigan City using a sustainability assessment form to be provided. Include recommendations on how community leaders can make progress in sustainable development for the 21st century. More assignment details will follow. Class presentation and reports will be April 19th.

The final report is due by the end of the day on April 20th (5:00 p.m.)

Points will be distributed in the following manner:
- Written group report – 110 (only one submitted per group)
- Final Group Presentation – 40
- Peer evaluation of your contribution – 30
- Self-evaluation of your contribution – 20

Attendance at the presentation is required. If you aren’t there you forfeit presentation points.

Final Exam – 150
The final exam will be a comprehensive traditional written exam. Students can use class notes, handouts, computer browser, or anything else during the final exam – but not another student or individual. However, there is a strict two hour time limit for the exam.

Important Dates for Spring Semester 2018:

- January 8 – First Day of Spring Classes
- January 15 – MLK Day – No Classes
- March 3 – 9 - Spring Break
• April 23 - Last Day of Classes
• May 3 - CSUS 322 Final (3:00 pm – 5:00 pm – Room 155 Com Arts)

Note: Changes to the course syllabus or schedule may occur to enhance the learning in this course. In this event, the student will be notified as soon as possible to any of these changes.

Academic Misconduct:

Article 2.III.B.2 of the Academic Freedom Report states: “The student shares with the faculty the responsibility for maintaining the integrity of scholarship, grades, and professional standards.” In addition, the Department of Community Sustainability adheres to the policies on academic honesty specified in General Student Regulation 1.0, Protection of Scholarship and Grades; the all-University Policy on Integrity of Scholarship and Grades; and Ordinance 17.00, Examinations. (See Spartan Life: Student Handbook and Resource Guide and/or the MSU Web site: www.msu.edu.)

Therefore, unless authorized by your instructor, you are expected to complete all course assignments, including homework, lab work, quizzes, tests and exams, without assistance from any source. You are expected to develop original work for this course; therefore, you may not submit course work you completed for another course to satisfy the requirements for this course. Also, you are not authorized to use the www.allmsu.com Web site to complete any course work in this course. Students who violate MSU regulations on Protection of Scholarship and Grades will receive a failing grade in the course or on the assignment.

Faculty are required to report all instances in which a penalty grade is given for academic dishonesty. Students reported for academic dishonesty are required to take an online course about the integrity of scholarship and grades. A hold will be placed on the student's account until such time as the student completes the course. This course is overseen by the Associate Provost for Undergraduate Education. (See also https://www.msu.edu/~ombud/academic-integrity/index.html). There will be no warnings – the maximum sanction allowed under University policy will occur on the first offense.

Accommodations:

Michigan State University is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all programs, services and activities. Requests for accommodations by persons with disabilities may be made by contacting the Resource Center for Persons with Disabilities at 517-884-RCPD or on the web at rcpd.msu.edu. Once your eligibility for an accommodation has been determined, you will be issued a verified individual services accommodation ("RISA") form. Please present this form to Dr. Foster at the start of the term and/or two weeks prior to the accommodation date (test, project, etc.). Requests received after this date will be honored whenever possible.

Commercialized Lecture Notes:

Commercialization of lecture notes and university-provided course materials is not permitted in this course.
Disruptive Behavior:
Article 2.III.B.4 of the Academic Freedom Report (AFR) for students at Michigan State University states: "The student's behavior in the classroom shall be conducive to the teaching and learning process for all concerned." Article 2.III.B.10 of the AFR states that "The student has a right to scholarly relationships with faculty based on mutual trust and civility." General Student Regulation 5.02 states: "No student shall . . . interfere with the functions and services of the University (for example, but not limited to, classes . . .) such that the function or service is obstructed or disrupted. Students whose conduct adversely affects the learning environment in this classroom may be subject to disciplinary action through the Student Faculty Judiciary process.

Grief Absence Request:
Michigan State University is committed to ensuring that the bereavement process of a student who loses a family member during a semester does not put the student at an academic disadvantage in their classes. If you require a grief absence, you should complete the “Grief Absence Request” web form (found at www.reg.msu.edu/sitemap.aspx?Group=7) no later than one week after knowledge of the circumstance. I will work with you to make appropriate accommodations so that you are not penalized due to a verified grief absence.

CAMPUS EMERGENCIES:
If an emergency arises in this classroom, building or vicinity, your instructor will inform you of actions to follow to enhance your safety. As a student in this class, you are responsible for knowing the location of the nearest emergency evacuation route or shelter. These directions appear on the maps posted on the walls throughout this building. If police or university officials order us to evacuate the classroom or building, follow the posted emergency route in an orderly manner and assist those who might need help in reaching a barrier-free exit or shelter. To receive emergency messages, set your cellular phones on silent mode when you enter this classroom. If you observe or receive an emergency alert, immediately and calmly inform your instructor. (See also www.alert.msu.edu or www.acadgov.msu.edu).

Handling Emergency Situations:
In the event of an emergency arising within the classroom/lab, the Professor, Teaching Assistant (TA), graduate student, instructor, or Facilitator will notify you of what actions that may be required to ensure your safety. It is the responsibility of each student to understand the evacuation, “shelter-in-place,” and “secure-in-place” guidelines posted in each facility and to act in a safe manner. You are allowed to maintain cellular devices in a silent mode during this course, in order to receive emergency SMS text, phone or email messages distributed by the university. When anyone receives such a notification or observes an emergency situation, they should immediately bring it to the attention of the Professor, Teaching Assistant (TA), graduate student, instructor, Facilitator in a way that causes the least disruption. If an evacuation is ordered, please ensure that you do it in a safe manner and facilitate those around you that may not otherwise be able to safely leave. When these orders are given, you do have the right as a member of this community to follow that order. Also, if a shelter-in-place or secure-in-place is ordered, please seek areas of refuge that are safe depending on the emergency encountered and provide assistance if it is advisable to do so.
E-LEARNING POLICIES:

Information technologies such as D2L and email are widely used in this class. As a result there are some additional policies that need to be understood.

- Students should visit the course’s D2L site on a regular basis.
- Students should check their email frequently (all class email is sent to the student’s official MSU email account).
- All assignments submitted electronically, either on disk or via email, should be free of any viruses and/or worms. Any infected file or disk that is submitted will receive a zero (0) for that assignment.
- This course recognizes the students’ right to privacy and adheres to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA).
- Excessive emails make an unreasonable time demands on both sender and recipient. Please ensure you have a legitimate need before you write.
- Dr. Foster will answer email about:
  - Questions arising from difficulty in understanding course content.
  - Requests for feedback about graded assignments.
  - Private issues appropriate for discussion within the teacher-student relationship.
- Dr. Foster will answer email received on a given day no later than close of work on the next workday.
- The Web site tech.msu.edu provides a number of information technology resources for students.
- You are responsible for the operation of any personally owned computers you use on or off campus. A malfunctioning computer system is NOT a valid excuse for submitting late work.
- Students are expected to have a high degree of self-motivation and self-direction in this class and develop the needed technology skills to excel in this class and in life.

CSUS 322 Turnitin Policy

Consistent with MSU’s efforts to enhance student learning, foster honesty, and maintain integrity in our academic processes, instructors may use a tool called Turnitin to compare a student’s work with multiple sources. The tool compares each student’s work with an extensive database of prior publications and papers, providing links to possible matches and a ‘similarity score’. The tool does not determine whether plagiarism has occurred or not. Instead, the instructor must make a complete assessment and judge the originality of the student’s work. All submissions to this course may be checked using this tool.

Students should submit papers to Turnitin Dropboxes without identifying information included in the paper (e.g. name or student number). The system will automatically show this info to faculty in your course when viewing the submission, but the information will not be retained by Turnitin.
