

Forest Carbon & Climate Program

Department of Forestry Scholarship Program

The Department of Forestry is pleased to announce the availability of scholarship support for three (3) Spring 2018 participants in the amount of $1,500 each. The funds will be distributed on a “per-course” basis – meaning that participants will receive one third (33%) of the total award in tuition support for each of the Certificate’s three courses.

Applications will be accepted and reviewed prior to the Spring 2018 semester (see Timeline below). In order to accept the scholarship, prospective participants must demonstrate ability to pay for remaining costs (e.g. by loans, private funds, employer match). If selected participants do not accept the scholarship within the timeframe provided, the scholarship will be offered to the next ranked applicant.

The scholarship recipients will have the opportunity to be featured in outreach materials.

Award	Criteria
$1,500	Based on short essay and professional experience. Financial need also considered.

Eligibility

Only off-campus students completing the entire Certificate program are eligible.

Application Information

To apply, applicants must submit a short essay and resume.

The essay should be no more than 350 words and must describe how the Graduate Certificate in Forest Carbon Science, Policy, and Management will support the applicant’s career objectives. Applicants are encouraged to be concise, and to include specific examples of how skills and knowledge acquired in the Program will increase their effectiveness as professionals. Details concerning financial barriers can be included, but should make up less than 100 additional words, for a maximum total of 450 words.

Forest Carbon & Climate Program

All essays should be in Word document format and include the applicants name and contact information.

Application materials should be sent to forestc@msu.edu by Monday, December 2nd. See the timeline below for more important dates.

Once selected, applicants will have until December 16th to accept the scholarship. To ensure that grant recipients are able to complete the entire Certificate, they must demonstrate a plan to cover remaining program costs whether through personal funds, professional development, additional grants, government support, or other sources.
