Danzer comprises wood processing companies specialized in the manufacture of decorative real wooden surfaces and sawn timber from high-quality hardwoods. The name Danzer stands for quality and reliability. All of the company’s activities are designed to satisfy our customers’ needs. However, the concerns of Danzer’s employees, the environment and society play an important role for us as a responsible company.

Danzer is continuously working on new technologies to enhance the quality of its products. Many of these innovations have become industry standards in the wood-processing sector. We are seeking an individual for a unique position regarding these innovative programs.

Qualifications:
- Self-motivating, self-starter
- Strong communicator
- Ability to work with others in a team environment
- Positive attitude
- Capable of making decisive decisions
- Must have computer and analytical skills
- Theoretical and practical field experience of North America Hardwood species would be an asset
- Diploma or Degree in Forestry or related discipline would be an asset