Global Food Law Programs at MSU College of Law

Curriculum

Required Core Courses (9 credits)
- International Food Law (3 credits)
- Food Regulation in the US (3 credits)
- Administrative Law – Food Focus (3 credits)

Electives (15 credits)
- Agriculture and Regulation
- Animal Health, World Trade, and Food Safety
- Biotechnology Law and Food Products
- Codex Alimentarius (The World Food Code)
- Food Regulation in Asia
- Food Regulation in Canada
- Food Regulation in the European Union
- Food Regulation in Latin America
- International Business Transactions
- International Commercial Arbitration
- Survey of Intellectual Property in Agriculture
- US Food Import Law

Students who already hold a Juris Doctor (J.D.) from an American institution will be enrolled in the Master of Laws (LL.M.) program. LL.M. students must successfully complete 24 credits from the selection above.

Students who do not already hold a J.D. from an American institution will be enrolled in the Master of Jurisprudence (M.J.) program. M.J. students must complete the 2-credit course “Foundations of Law and Legal Research” in addition to 24 credits from the selection above.

All program course work must be successfully completed within five academic years.