Past Events:

- Campus Conservation Nationals 2012: “A nationwide resource-use reduction competition that challenged college and university campuses to achieve the greatest electricity- and water-use reductions during a three week period.” The competition included Bryan Hall vs. Emmons Hall.

- Herman Miller Student Video Contest 2012 - What Makes Your Campus Green?: A video competition to show sustainable initiatives of college and university campuses across the nation.

- The Christman Building Tour: The Club toured of the world’s first triple Platinum LEED® certified building, hosted by the Christman Company, which highlighted sustainable features of the building’s design, construction and ongoing operations.

- Lansing Lugnuts Baseball Outing: A social activity that improve group construction and help to release the pressure in a busy semester.