

2015 UNDERGRADUATE FORESTRY RETREAT:

What communication, collaboration and leadership skills are important in forestry or other natural resources professions? Join us for the second annual Forestry Undergraduate retreat in which we will identify and develop skills and strategies you can use throughout your career.

Undergraduate Forestry Professional Development & Leadership Skills Retreat

The purpose of this retreat is to explore topics related to leadership skills in a wide variety of forestry professions. The retreat will include large and small-group sessions focused on instruction and dialog about leadership and professional development topics. There will be opportunities for recreation (canoeing, swimming and hiking) near the retreat center.

WHO:

OPEN to all undergraduate Forestry Majors & Minors
REQUIRED for all Forests Forever Scholars

WHERE:

The retreat will be held at the DNR Ralph A. MacMullen Conference Center in Roscommon, MI, on the shores of scenic Higgins Lake.

COST:

All expenses (transportation, lodging, meals) will be covered by the Department of Forestry.
