What is leadership? What are the skills and perspectives you bring to your profession that enable you to be a leader? Do you lead from the front, from the rear, or from the middle in a group environment? What leadership skills are essential for a career in Forestry? What resources exist to help you develop your natural leadership style?

UNDERGRADUATE FORESTRY RETREAT:

Undergraduate Forestry Professional Development & Leadership Skills Retreat

The purpose of this retreat is to explore topics related to leadership skills in a wide variety of forestry professions. The retreat will include large and small-group sessions focused on instruction and dialog about leadership and professional development topics. There will be daily opportunities for recreation (canoeing, swimming and hiking) near the retreat center.

WHO:
OPEN to all undergraduate Forestry Majors & Minors
REQUIRED for all Forests Forever Scholars

WHERE:
The retreat will be held at the DNR Ralph A. MacMullen Conference Center in Roscommon, MI, on the shores of scenic Higgins Lake.

COST:
All expenses (transportation, lodging, meals) will be covered by the Department of Forestry.

MORE INFORMATION:
Walter Chomentowski, chomento@msu.edu
Dr. Jessica Miesel, mieselje@msu.edu

Watch for more information at the beginning of Fall Semester

FRIDAY p.m.
SEPTEMBER 12, 2014
TO SUNDAY p.m.
SEPTEMBER 14, 2014

DNR Ralph A. MacMullen Conference Center in Roscommon, MI