Pre-College Leadership Program (PCLP)

What is PCLP?

PCLP is a week-long residential experience where Native American youth can explore both traditional culture and college life! Academic workshops, cultural activities, and social events are all facilitated and supervised by MSU Native faculty, staff, and current undergraduate students! The PCLP youth retreat is the perfect place for Native young people to learn about college! PCLP 2015 will take place from July 12-17, 2015. Participants must commit to the entire time. Arriving a day late or leaving a day early is not an option.

Who Participates in the PCLP?

The program is open to Native American students who will be entering the 8th-12 grades in the fall of 2015 and those with a strong interest and involvement in Native American culture and community. Space is limited to the first 30 applicants who have completed the application process using the application check list provided in this application (incomplete applications will not be considered) AND have completed and returned all the follow-up paperwork including forms such as health information, emergency treatment authorization, various permissions slips (varies year to year depending on activities scheduled), and whatever else may be included in the follow up paperwork.

How much does it cost?

There is no cost to participate in PCLP 2015. However, participants are responsible for their own transportation to and from MSU located in East Lansing, Michigan.
