MSU is an affirmative-action, equal-opportunity employer. Michigan State University Extension programs and materials are open to all without regard to race, color, national origin, gender identity, religion, age, height, weight, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, marital status, family status or veteran status. Persons with disabilities may request accommodations by contacting Laurie Rivetto at rivettoL@msu.edu by March 18th to make arrangements. Requests received after this date will be met when possible.

Description:

In support of Financial Literacy Month, Michigan State University Extension and 4-H are coordinating the Cash Composition Contest. Michigan Youth are encouraged to participate by submitting an essay of 300 words or less on the topic below. Five finalists will go onto the interview round and be named this year's Michigan Money Smart Youth Ambassadors.

Cash Composition Topic:

What is the difference between an investment and savings? What would be a good investment for you? What would be a good investment for your community to create a more diverse, equitable and inclusive environment? Please discuss how your community and you would benefit from these investments.
