One-page early achievements track-record

International mobility for Teaching and Research Activities

Since 2008, I have been visiting 12 times in foreign Universities, as Visiting Teaching Professor for 4 times in a PhD course offered by the Wageningen University & Research (Netherlands), and 10 times in undergraduate course offered by the North Carolina State University (USA) and the Iowa State University (USA). I have been 2 times visiting research at the University of Gottingen (Germany) and 1 time visiting researcher at the Iowa State University (USA). I have been invited speaker or keynote speaker in about 27 international (and 6 national) academic events. I have given seminars include top Schools such as the Duke University (USA), the University of British Columbia (Canada), and the University of Gottingen (Germany), among many others.

On selected publications to report my ability in supervising students

The following list of publications reports my role as corresponding author (with an asterisk *), as leading or coordinating author (in bold). The names of students I have supervised and have co-authored the publication have been underlined.

The following publications are on trade policies issues and demonstrate my expertise in supervising and co-author with students I have supervised. The paper published in the Journal of Agricultural Economics is leading article in the issue of the journal.

1. Santeramo, F.G., Lamonaca, E. (2019). The effects of non-tariff measures on agri-food trade: A review and meta-analysis of empirical evidence. Journal of Agricultural Economics, 70(3), 595-617.
2. Santeramo, F.G., Lamonaca, E., Nardone, G., Seccia, A. (2019). The benefits of country-specific non-tariff measures in world wine trade. Wine Economics and Policy, 8(1), 28-37.
3. Dal Bianco, A., Boatto, V.L., Caracciolo, F., Santeramo, F.G. (2016). Tariffs and non-tariff frictions in the world wine trade. European Review of Agricultural Economics, 43(1), 31-57.

The following publications refer to my research on international price transmission. The solo-author publication is from my doctorate dissertation, which has received 3 Awards by Italian Associations on Agricultural Economics and on Agricultural Sciences. The paper published in Agricultural Economics have been co-authored with my MSc supervisors, and have received the Best Paper in Agricultural Award, by the IAAE.

4. Lence, S.H., Moschini, G., Santeramo, F.G. (2018). Threshold cointegration and spatial price transmission when expectations matter. Agricultural Economics, 49(1), 25-39.
5. Santeramo, F.G. (2015). Price transmission in the European tomatoes and cauliflowers sectors. Agribusiness, 31(3), 399-413.

In the following publication I have coordinated the research group on agricultural economics of the University of Foggia. In 3 years, the publication has received a high number of citations

6. Santeramo, F.G., Carlucci, D., De Devitiis, B., Seccia, A., Stasi, A., Viscecchia, R., Nardone, G. (2018). Emerging trends in European food, diets and food industry. Food Research International, 104, 39-47.

Prizes and Awards for research activity, and membership or leading roles in academic Institutions or societies

I am currently recognized in IDEAS as a top 10% Agricultural Economist in the world, and a top 10% economist in Italy. I have received about 13 awards my research activity, such as the Best Paper published in 2018 in Agricultural Economics award by IAAE, the AISSA Award and the the SIDEA Antonio Cioffi Award for the best Italian PhD dissertation in Agricultural Economics, the AIEEA Antonio Cioffi Award for research by a Young Researcher, several merit-based travel grants. I have also been selected as NCSU Representant at SEA Meeting. I am currently serving as Rector's delegate at the University of Foggia, and I am representative of Non-US Universities and member of the Executive Committee of the International Agricultural Trade Research Consortium.
