

International Program Involvements
of Agricultural Economic Staff Members-
Years, Names and Purposes, While at M.S.U., 1933-65

by Robert Stevens

Year	Name and Purpose	Months
1933	E.B. Hill , visited Northern European countries including Russia on a study tour. Intended to attend the Third International Conference of Agricultural Economists at Bad Eilsen, Germany which was on two week's notice.	2
1934	O. Ulrey , and H.A. Berg , in Northern European countries to attend The Third International Conference of Agricultural Economists in Bad Eilsen, Germany.	2
1935	O. Ulrey , Mexico study trip.	1
1937	E.B. Hill , Northern Europe, study trip	2
1938-39	O. Ulrey , travel study in England, Scandanavia and Northern Germany studying cooperatives farm organizations and pricing policies.	3
1938-39	E.B. Hill , on leave in Puerto Rico as Acting Head, Department of Agricultural Economics, Univ. of Puerto Rico, Agricultural Experiment Station.	13
1950	A. Mauch , participated in the 10 country M.S.U. flying classroom to Europe which studied the Marshall Plan.	1-1/2
1950	World trade in agricultural products was discussed in extension meetings.
1951	L.W. Witt , was an agricultural consultant to FAO, Rome, Italy.	4
1951	Karl T. Wright , became agricultural economic advisor in England for the ECA (Economic Cooperation Administration) of the U.S. Government.	12
1952	Michigan State University was host to the International Conference of Agricultural Economists. The meeting was supported by the Kellogg Foundation.

Year	Name and Purpose	Months
1952	L.W. Witt , became a member of the American Universities Field Staff in Brazil.	4
1954-55	Orion Ulrey , went on a Fulbright Grant to W. Pakistan, University of Peshawar.	12
1955	G.L. Johnson , was a consultant to the Norwegian Government.	3
1956	L.H. Brown , worked with the Organization for European Economic Cooperation on farm, wrote simplification and labor management. Sabbatical leave and vacation time.	8
1956	This first specific mention of international involvements occurs in this Annual Report. It says in part "Our efforts with training programs for foreign students were intensified and progress was made by our representative in the Institutions project in Palmira, Colombia."
1957	L.L. Boger , Pakistan Academy investigation; M.S.U. and Ford Foundation.	1
1957-59	Leonard Kyle , joined the Colombian project, advisor in Ag. Econ., College of Agr. Palmira under ICA contract.	20
1957	Special seminar program for 18 ICA students especially for those from Pakistan.
1958-62	Orion Ulrey , joined the University of Missouri team at Ranchi Agr. College, Behar, U.S. and AID contract funds.	48
1958-60	Karl T. Wright , headed a Mission of the University of the Ryukyus (Okinawa) for two years. Also advisor to the U.S. Civil Administrators in Ryukus. Financed by U.S. Army Contract with M.S.U.	24
1958	Lawrence Witt , became Director of Studies for International Programs at M.S.U. and spent two months in Asia at the International Conference of Agricultural Economists and for the Agricultural Development Council.	2
1958	R. Barlowe , became a consultant for three weeks to the Puerto Rican Government.	1

Year	Name and Purpose	Months
1958	The Annual Report states "Presently attempts are underway to strengthen our research program in international trade programs and policies. Contacts have been made with representatives of the Ford Foundation as well as with the FAS of the USDA."
1958	R. Barlowe , became advisor for Robert Nathan Associates in Colombia, South America for six months.	6
1959	G.L. Johnson , appointed Simons visiting Professor in Economics at Manchester Univ., England. Financed by Univ. of Manchester, Rockefeller Foundation and sabbatic leave grant M.S.U.
1959	P.L. 480 research funds obtained via IRM-1, International RMA funds.
1959	L.L. Boger , consulted one month on the Colombian Project	1
1959	Karl T. Wright , participated in a 6 week M.S.U.-ICA survey party in Taiwan.	1-1/2
1960-62	Garland Wood , became leader for two years of the Colombian Project which was under Kellogg Foundation sponsorship.	24
1960	A. Mauch , participated in a foreign agricultural study tour in the Far East concerned with the use of P.L. 480 funds and agricultural trade expansion prospects.	1-1/2
1960	The Department obtained for the first time financial support from the Ford Foundation for International Programs for a five-year period.
1960	G.L. Johnson , became a member of the International Cooperation Administration evaluation team in Thailand. Financed by U.S. Dept. of State.	1-1/2
1960	Ray Høglund , made a study tour in Europe and the United States. Gave paper at International Grass Land Conference, Reading, England. Financed by Høglund plus leave of absence M.S.U.	6
1961	Orion Ulrey , extended his University of Missouri contract in India for a second two-year term.

Year	Name and Purpose	Months
1961	Lawrence Witt , to consult on research and teaching, Colombia project, MSU and Kellogg grant.	2
1961	Lawrence Witt , Costa Rica, consultant, Inter-American Institute of Agr. Sci.	1
1961	Harold Riley , joined the Colombian Project for two years in which graduate student Goering was involved.
1961	Five NDEA fellowships in international development were awarded for the first time to the Department.
1962-64	R.G. Wheeler , joined the Colombian Project for three years to provide technical assistance in area of Agr. Economics in facilities of agronomy in Universitys of Medellin and Palmira and to conduct research under contract with the USDA.	24
1962-63	Carl Eicher , visited Nigeria for two months.	2
1962-63	Smith Greig , worked in Brazil on a feasibility study of storing, handling and processing grain and tuber crops. Commercial contract three USAID and Brazilian government.	5
1962-65	G.L. Johnson , on partial leave from M.S.U., became head of the University of Nigeria Economic Development Institute in agriculture and non-agriculture. Sponsored by Michigan State University with AID contract.	24
1962	Lawrence Witt , worked in Colombia to complete manuscript on Effect of P.L. 480 and the Colombian economy.	2
1962	A grant was received from the Social Science Division of the Rockefeller Foundation to evaluate "the impact that agricultural policies in Western Europe are likely to have upon the quantity and quality of food products available for economic development use in poor countries."
1962	Lawrence Witt , Colombia; M.S.U.-Colombia-USDA contract.	2
1962	Foreign Programs (The first separate mention of Foreign Programs in the Annual Report). Three Ph.D. candidates in Agricultural Economics were approved to do research in Colombia under a Ford Foundation grant. One Ph.D. candidate will work in Nigeria under a Counsel on Economic and Cultural Affairs Grant.

Year	Name and Purpose	Months
1963	Garland Wood , Latin America to investigate faculty exchange programs between M.S.U. and Univ. of Mexico, Central America and Colombia.	1
1963	L.W. Witt , traveled in Spain, Greece, Italy, Turkey and Belgium for the Economic Research Service of the USDA to consult with foreign groups conducting research under ERS contracts.	4
1963	Lawrence Witt , delivered a paper in the Netherlands, The Common Market and U.S. Trade Problems- Foreign Agr. Service and U.S.D.A.	1
1963	Orion Ulrey , traveled to Mauritius for the Fiftieth Anniversary of Cooperatives on the Island. He also traveled to Pakistan, India, Israel, Yugoslavia and Nairobi, Kenya.	2-1/2
1964	Smith Greig , worked in Colombia on another feasibility study.	6
1964	Dale Hathaway , studied in Europe on problems of the Common Market, Rockefeller Foundation grant.	12
1964-65	Glynn McBride , took an assignment as advisor to the Government of W. Pakistan at the Peshawar Academy for Rural Development. Ford Foundation grants.	24
1964-65	Vern Sorenson , became a consultant to the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) in Paris. U.S. State Dept., OECD	24
1964	K.T. Wright , took a three-month assignment in Taiwan with the M.S.U. Project. An AID sponsored project.	3
1963-65	Carl Eicher , received a Counsel on Economic and Cultural Affairs Grant for work in Nigeria. Economic advisor, Economic Development Institute, Univ. of Nigeria.	28
1964	It was arranged for three Ph.D. candidates to work in Nigeria.
1964	Harold Riley , worked in Colombia for two weeks.	1/2

Year	Name and Purpose	Months
1964	Richard Wheeler , received a one-year extension on his assignment in Colombia.	12
1964	Lawrence Witt , spent one month in Turkey consulting with the University of Ankara for E.R.S.	1
1964	Lawrence Witt , England and France, seminar on OECD changes. Ditchley Foundation.	1
1964	Garland Wood , took a Latin American trip.	2
1964	L.L. Boger , attended the International Association of Agricultural Economists meeting in Lyons, France and then traveled to East and West Pakistan to review M.S.U. Programs.	1
1964	John C. Doneth , served as host and tour leader for a group of agricultural leaders who traveled to Europe and the U.S.S.R.	1
1964-65	Robert Stevens , became advisor to the Pakistan Academy for Rural Development, Comilla, East Pakistan from October 1964 through February 1965.	5
1964	Hathaway, Eicher, Johnson, Schmid and Sorenson , 3 attended the International Association of Agricultural Economists meetings in Lyons, France.	3
1965	L.H. Brown , made a 3-month tour in Europe.	3
1965	Carl Eicher , continued as Director of the Economic Development Institute in Nigeria.
1965	Glenn L. Johnson , became Project Director of the Nigerian Consortium.
1965	George Dike , became Assistant Project Director of the Nigerian Consortium.
1965	Dale Hathaway and Vern Sorenson , received a USDA grant to study the Impact of the European Common Market on U.S. Agriculture.
1965	Lawrence Witt , U.A.R., Tunisia and Brazil to identify problems of Food For Peace-- Mich. State and AID project.	1
1965	Lawrence Witt , received an AID grant to outline a research program on Food for Peace.
1965	Three graduate students returned from Nigeria (Anschel, Miller and Welsch).	