

Allegan County 4-H Teen Leader Project

Allegan County 4-H program continues to implement new opportunities for teens to increase their leadership experiences. One of these new opportunities is the MSU Extension, Allegan County 4-H Teen Leader Project.

Teen Leader Position Description:

4-H teen leaders gain hands on leadership experience by working closely with adults to plan, implement, and reflect on educational experiences for other youth in Allegan County. Youth approved as an Allegan County 4-H Teen Leader will develop leadership skills by:

- Working closely with an MSU Extension approved adult volunteer, superintendent, or staff to develop hands on learning opportunities for other youth. An approved volunteer or staff must be present at all 4-H educational programs.
- Youth will develop a variety of life skills through the teen leadership project including: goal setting, planning/organizing, team work, social skills, decision making, self- responsibility, marketable skills, etc.
- Participate in 4-H teen leader orientation, 4-H teen leader retreat and additional trainings related to individual projects, from MSU and other organizations. Training opportunities may include attending Exploration Days, Kettunen Center trainings, Great Lakes Natural Resource Camp, etc.
- Teen Leaders will complete the 4-H teen leadership project guide, https://www.canr.msu.edu/resources/4\_h\_teen\_leadership,
- Allegan County 4-H Teen Leaders will present their project to community leaders to show their leadership development. Community leaders may include a 4-H council, county commissioners, school board, conservation district, service clubs, etc.
