

TOP 10

2017 BREEDERS & OWNERS of Purebred & HALF-ARABIAN NATIONAL WINNERS

For nearly 20 years, Arabian Horse World has calculated the leading owners and breeders of purebred and Half-Arabians from the U.S., Canadian, and Youth National championships. When the Sport Horse championships were added to the calendar, they were also included in the calculation, using the following system: 10 points for a National Championship, seven points for a Reserve and four points for a Top Ten.

This year's tally shows Dave and Gail Liniger's Maroon Fire Arabians topping the chart of Leading Breeders of National-winning purebred Arabians of all National shows combined. Between them, and their long-time associate Marty Shea in fourth place, they are responsible for having bred 49 horses that won 17 National Championships, nine Reserves and 69 Top Tens in 2017. We recently spoke with Marty, who, with husband Tim, operates Shea Stables in St. Clair, Michigan, where the Maroon Fire Arabians, currently numbering 45, are based. "The Linigers originally came to us for Tim to train a mare they had purchased. That was over thirty years ago," says Marty. "Mr. Liniger has always been a man with a plan. When he bought the stallion Afire Bey V (Huckleberry Bey x Autumn Fire), he had no foals on the ground. It was just a hunch on Dave's part. And he fell in love with the horse.

"The reason Afire Bey got such a good start as a breeding horse is because the Linigers bought such nice mares. After the first foals started doing well, people began sending good mares, and the whole thing just exploded. Can Can Dancer (Afire Bey V x Al-Marah Canadette) was the first major winner by him when she won the U.S. National Championship in English Pleasure Junior Horse, bred and owned by the Linigers.

"Of course there was luck involved," continues Marty. "It was lucky that Mr. Liniger bought Afire Bey because he could also buy the mares and he could do the necessary advertising. Being a real estate person, he believed in advertising. And he was patient. The sign of a true breeder."

Serious breeders and owners of Arabians make a lifetime commitment. Everyone on the following lists has demonstrated significant sacrifice and dedication to the Arabian horse. Please join us in saluting their success.
