What Should I Do If My Dog Gets Lost And How Can I Prevent My Dog From Getting Lost.

Think about all the ways your dog could become lost, then think of a way to prevent each thing from happening. Write your plan in the chart below. Think about all your dog’s environments, inside, outside, traveling and so on.

How I Will Prevent My Dog From Getting Lost

How my dog could get lost	How I can prevent it

Create a “Lost Dog” poster to be prepared in case you ever lose your dog. Use space here to design your poster or attach a separate sheet.

What Breed am I?

1. We are a sporting dog. A true American Breed from Chesapeake Bay. We retrieve ducks from the water. Strong sturdy dog with thick dark brown coats.

What breed am I _____

2. We are a hound from Africa we were presented to the Pharaohs of ancient Egypt as gifts. We are known for our intelligence, speed, hunting abilities, and silence especially being we do not bark.

What breed am I _____

3. We are a working dog. We are from Switzerland and Italy being companions of monks who lived in the Swiss Alps. When a person was lost in the snowy mountain passes we were used to find unlucky travelers.

What breed am I _____

4. We are a terrier one of the oldest terriers. Smaller dog with short body. We started out in Scotland as a fierce hunter of foxes and badgers but we still want to rid the worlds or rats and other varmints. One other thing one of us was in the movie "Lady and the Tramp" although I was not the main character.

What breed am I _____

5. We are small toy dog. Legend states this small dog was highly important religious object of the Aztecs. A famous commercial made us famous as "Taco Bell Dogs"

What breed am I _____

6. We are a little dog who is lively, spunky and curious. We were originally called a "badger dog" in German and were created to hunt down badgers. We are diggers and dig our way into an underground den.

What breed am I _____

7. We are descended from various old German herding and farm dogs. Today we can still be found herding farm animals, but we also are used as a police dog or military dog. Many of our kind have received medals for our work.

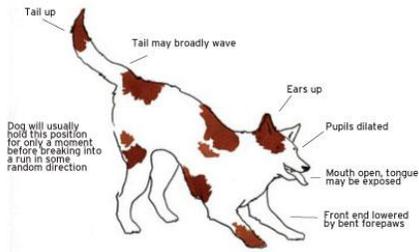

What breed am I _____

8. We were prized by hunters as a water retriever of birds as far back as the 15th and 16th centuries in Germany. In France we were used as performance circus dogs. We come in three types: standard, miniature and toy depending on our size. Otherwise we are identical in appearance.

Dog Body Language

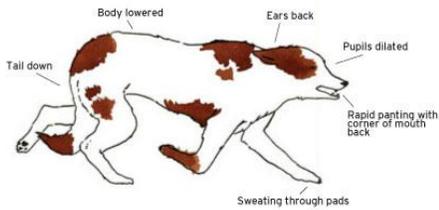

Draw a line from the picture to the language of the dog.

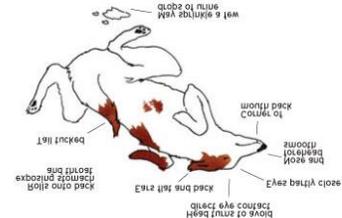

Relaxed

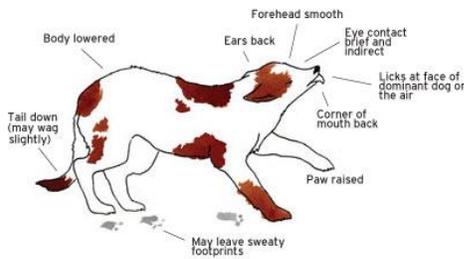

Alert

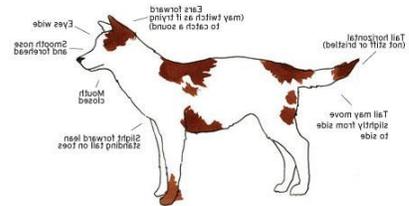

Dominate Aggressive

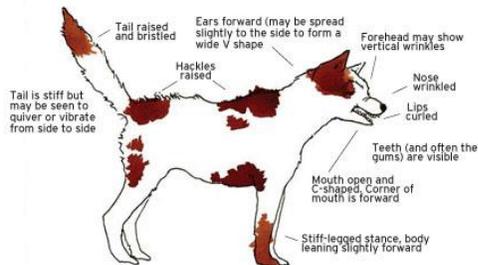

Fearful and Aggressive

Stressed and Distressed

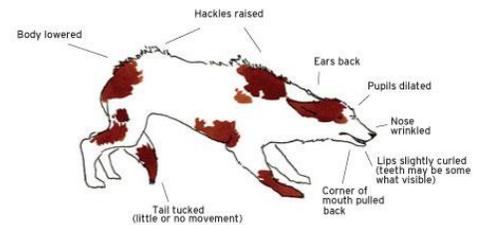

Fearful and Worried

Extreme Fear-Total Submission

Playfulness

If you understand dog body language, you will be more able to tell which dogs are friendly and which ones you should avoid. Dogs use body postures facial expressions and tail positioning to communicate with other dogs and people. A dog's body language can tell us if the dog is submissive, fearful, friendly or aggressive.
