

CORN

- Sweet corn is the kind of corn that people eat. Field corn is what animals eat and what is used to make ethanol. They are two different kinds of corn.
- More than 90% of the corn grown in Michigan is field corn and it is Michigan's number one crop.
- There are more than 3,500 different uses for field corn, including food and beverage items, cleaners, cosmetics, biodegradable plastics and many more.
- Field corn adds nearly $2.3 billion to Michigan's economy annually.