

SUPPORTING MICHIGAN'S FUTURE THROUGH COMMUNITY, FOOD & ENVIRONMENT PROGRAMMING

347

jobs created or retained as a result of MSU Extension programming.

225,623

acres of land protected, enhanced, restored or managed sustainably with MSU Extension assistance.

DOLLAR VALUE OF COMMUNITY, FOOD & ENVIRONMENT ACTIVITIES

$874,659

Value of volunteer hours (Independent Sector @ $31.80 per hour).

$11,235,170

Value of resources leveraged by businesses.

$5,415,950

Value of grants and resources leveraged or generated by communities.

IMPACTS

MSU Extension educators work with businesses, local and tribal governments, and communities of all sizes to improve local economies and the lives of Michigan residents. MSU Extension educators also provide programming aimed at protecting and sustainably managing our state's natural resources.

822

certifications obtained by individuals or businesses that allowed continued or expanded work.

10,587

participants used ecosystem-based management strategies in their resource management decision making.

9,326

government officials who use what they learned in making decisions.

1,456

stewardship projects completed by participants across programs.

CONTACT INFORMATION:

To find out more about MSU Extension community, food, and environment programming or to find an expert near you, visit www.extension.msu.edu.

223

new leadership roles and opportunities created.

27

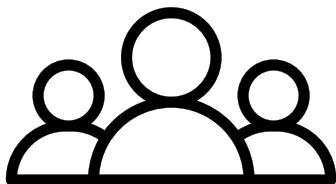

new businesses created.

128

plans or policies developed.

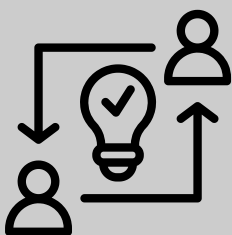

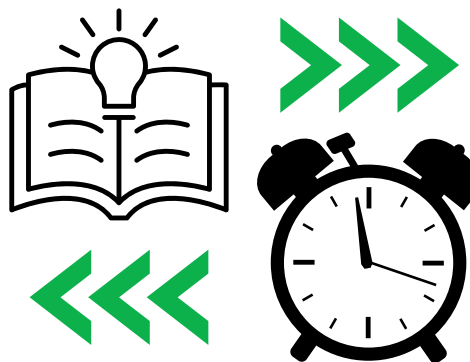

COMMUNITY, FOOD & ENVIRONMENT 2023 PROGRAM ACTIVITIES

62,275+ PARTICIPANTS
FROM ACROSS MICHIGAN

1,270 PROGRAMS
OFFERED OVER
7,484 HOURS
OF PROGRAMMING

38,509
DIRECT
CONSULTATION SESSIONS

LEARN MORE ABOUT OUR IMPACT:

121
COMMUNITY
PARTNERSHIPS

