

Mamie Parker

President of MA Parker and Associates, an environmental management and coaching company.

A fish and wildlife biologist, Parker previously served as assistant director and regional director of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

A pioneer in conservation, Parker is known to grow new partnerships, promoting habitat restorations, coastal and marine mammal protection, fish passage, wetland mapping, planning on military lands, strategic planning, and outreach.

While on campus, she will present two seminars:

Tuesday, March 19
4:30 p.m.

The Game Changer: Facing Fears and Negotiating a Career in Natural Resources

Kellogg Center Cornish Room

Wednesday, March 20 11:30 a.m.

Five Shades of Gray: Dreaming of More Diversity in Natural Resource Professions

James Madison College Library in Case Hall

Parker's seminars are sponsored by the MSU Center for Systems Integration and Sustainability in collaboration with the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources, James Madison College, and the Honors College. The seminars are free and open to the public.