4. Club Community Service Award Submission

In an effort to increase and recognize community service activities, the club "Community Service Award" is given each year by the 4-H Council. Up to three clubs will be selected and the award will be presented at the Participation Celebration award banquet. To apply, submit a list and description of your club's community service projects in Eaton County. At least 50% of the club members must participate for a project to qualify. The time frame covered is September 1 to August 31.

5. Club Recreation Award

To encourage more clubs to include recreation in their meetings and yearly program, 4-H Council will present "Club Recreation Awards". These awards will be given in recognition of recreation activities clubs participate in. The awards will be presented at the Volunteer Recognition Celebration. To be eligible for the award, 50% of the club members must participate in the activities. To apply, submit a list and description of your club's recreational activities from September 1 to August 31.
