

Eaton County 4-H Small Animal Association Scholarship Form

4-H members actively involved in the Small Animal Association are eligible for up to $60 that can be spent to attend 4-H Exploration Days or a Kettunen Center workshop. Members will receive the scholarship amount on a tier system depending on the number of Small Animal Association meetings they attend. Members must sign in on the attendance sheets. The money will be available in April in the 4-H year until March of the next year. This form must be turned in when the youth registers for the event they want to use the money for.
