Overview

Cheikh Mbaw is a research Professor and the Director General of the **Centre de Suivi Ecologique**-CSE (Senegal). He was previously Director of **Future Africa** at the University of Pretoria. He served as the Executive Director of **START-International** in Washington DC and Lead Scientist on Climate Change at the **World Agroforestry** center in Kenya. He is Adjunct Professor at **Michigan State University's** Department of Forestry. He works on Global Change research capacities for developing countries in Africa and Asia. He worked on land productivity and climate change at the Institute of Environmental Sciences, an interdisciplinary institute of the University Cheikh Anta Diop of Dakar (**UCAD**). At the university, he managed the research team CAREX (Climate Change, Adaptation and Environmental Risks). Over the past 23 years, Mbaw has been active to raise funding and develop research and education partnerships. He established and coordinated the **GOF-C-GOLD Regional Network** for West Africa (WARN) and worked in several regional programs such as AFRICANESS, AMMA (FP6), UNDESERT (FP7) projects, for the Global Atlas of the convention on Desertification, the GBO3 and for the GLO. Cheikh Mbaw has been a Senior Scientist (Team Leader) on Climate Change and Development at World Agroforestry Centre (**ICRAF**) and supported the inter institutional program **CCAFS** (Climate Change, Agriculture and Food Security). He is currently Adjunct Associate Professor at **Michigan State University's** Department of Forestry where he supports integrated land use systems such as agroforestry. With more than 120 publications on various sustainability issues, Mbaw has proven transdisciplinary expertise on food security and sustainable production in Africa. His work focuses on natural resources management, capacity building and translation of scientific information to decision makers and various stakeholder groups. He is a Lead Author on the Agriculture, Forestry and Other Land Use (AFOLU) chapter in the IPCC's AR-5 and AR-6. Mbaw is now a **Coordinating Lead Author for the IPCC Special Report on Food Security**. He served in many Scientific Committees such as the International Geosphere-Biosphere Program-IGBP (2012-2014) and Future Earth (2013-2015). He contributed to many high-level science-policy documents for UN agencies.
