Melissa Maxwell will be backing away from a majority of duty at the horse barn and a new assistant horse superintended will be stepping up in her place. Dennis will still be the acting head supervisor. The horse wash rack is in desperate need of repair. Melissa is looking for ways to raise the funds to work that out. Paperwork for Coggins & vaccinations is due June 14th to the FAIR OFFICE

Old Business:

Awards at fair are changing to metals Gwen is heading this new project

New Business:

Selection for a state horse show is in need of a revamp after much discussion the committee has decided on doing a pre-online registration for youth interested and has set new premieres for those who want to participate

Jumping program is a new interest for youth in the county Gwen has found someone interested in teaching and is getting the jumps repaired

Melissa is interested in doing a tack swap at the Beaverton activity center we will need to look into this a little more but it could be a great fundraiser
