Nicotiana alata 'Saratoga Lime'

Scientific Name: Nicotiana alata

Common Name: Flowering tobacco

Native to: South America (Brazil, Bolivia, Argentina)

Grows in zones: 8 to 11

Pollinator Attractor: Yes

Attracts: Butterflies and Hummingbirds

Plant Description: Short plant with upright flower stalks containing lime green tubular flowers. The flower has five points but is completely connected like the entire flower is one petal.

Height: 10” - 12”

Spread: 10” - 12”

Pictures and references included on the next page
Pictures:

References:  Saratoga™ Lime | Syngenta Flowers (syngentafowers-us.com)
Nicotianas, Old and New - Dave's Garden (davesgarden.com)