Vinca Tattoo Black Cherry

Scientific Name: Catharanthus roseus

Common Name: Upright Vinca

Native to: Madagascar

Grows in zones: 10 to 11 (perennial)

Pollinator Attractor: Yes

Attracts: Butterflies and Hummingbirds

Plant Description: Short compact plant with dark green glossy foliage with light venation. Deep pink flower, with five petals that overlap like a pinwheel, with a deeper purple black center that spreads outward.

Height: 10” - 14”

Spread: 6” - 8”

Pictures and references included on the next page
Pictures:

References:  Tattoo™ Black Cherry Vinca (panamseed.com)
Catharanthus roseus 'Tattoo Black Cherry' | Periwinkle | Shades of Green Inc.
Catharanthus roseus (Annual Vinca, Madagascar Periwinkle, Periwinkle, Rose Periwinkle, Running Myrtle, Vinca) | North Carolina Extension Gardener Plant Toolbox (ncsu.edu)