Learn the Fundamentals of Judging Horses

Join

The Ingham County 4-H Horse Judging Team

- Learn what a judge is looking for when placing your classes
- It's a great way to learn about different horse breeds and riding disciplines and start a foundation for becoming a future professional judge
- Understand what qualities to look for before purchasing or leasing a horse of your own
- Take field trips to horse farms and talk to trainers about their experiences
- Increase your decision-making skills and improve your organizational and communication skills
- Represent your County and compete at the State 4-H Horse Judging Contest

The team meets once a week from October-March. At the workouts, youth learn the fundamentals of judging horses and how to compete in a horse judging contest. In March, they will compete at the State 4-H Horse Judging Contest. Anyone of 4-H age (8-19) can join and it's not necessary to own a horse, so ask your horse-crazy friends from school!

Anyone interested should attend the:

2019 Introductory Meeting

SCHOLARSHIP

6

4-H Scholarships Available

As another school year begins, I wanted to remind everyone that there are several post-secondary scholarships available to 4-H members throughout the state. In addition to the 4-H scholarships offered locally by county 4-H programs and councils, there are also funds to support post-secondary education on a state-wide basis. MI 4-H scholarships provide a tremendous opportunity for 4-H youth to receive financial support toward their post-secondary education – and they are simple to complete! The deadline for applications is November 1st.

For more information about the 4-H scholarships and to access the applications please visit our 4-H scholarships web page. Applications should be postmarked by November 1st.
