4-H PARTICIPATION FEE ELIMINATION FOR 2021-2022

It is with great enthusiasm that I share Michigan State University Extension has eliminated the 4-H participation fee indefinitely. This fee was not collected in the 2020-2021 program year in consideration of the financial strain put on some families due to the COVID-19 pandemic. This pause gave us an opportunity to reflect on how we can best reach all audiences. Despite our best efforts, this fee has been a barrier for some. By removing the fee, Michigan 4-H feels it can best bring the power of 4-H to all young people in Michigan.

As a valued partner, I wanted to share this important news with you as I hope this new policy will allow more Ingham County youth to take part in the hands-on learning provided by 4-H. The last 15 months have been difficult and I am excited 4-H is once again offering face-to-face programs in communities, in addition to continuing some of our great virtual efforts. I look forward to hearing your ideas about how we can collaborate to provide our current and future 4-H youth with new and improved opportunities to grow with 4-H.

Dear 4-H community -

Earlier this week, Michigan State University removed many of their remaining COVID-19 rules in alignment with the current re-opening of the state announced on June 22. As a result, MSU Extension will no longer have any face-to-face requirements or require approvals for in-person 4-H meetings, activities or events. Michigan 4-H clubs and groups may now meet in-person as desired! Please continue to keep a record of attendance with contact information for each in-person engagement, via meeting minutes, registration, attendance log or other methods.

Volunteers who have not already done so will need to be in active status in Volunteer Central before re-engaging, but the Communicating Through Conflict training module is no longer required. Please contact your local 4-H program coordinator if you have questions about your current volunteer status.

While not a requirement, Michigan 4-H volunteers hosting in-person events are still encouraged to continue following best practices that allow individuals to increase their comfort level with meeting in person. This includes meeting outside when possible, keeping participant numbers below maximum capacity to allow for social distancing, offering hand sanitizer at touch points, frequently sanitizing surfaces and respecting the continued use of masks by those who choose to wear them. Flexibility continues to be key and groups should continue to provide options (including virtual) for participation to ensure all participants can remain involved given their individual circumstances.

In the coming weeks, your local 4-H program coordinator may offer additional guidance and recommendations for in-person programming, as necessary to meet local needs and issues. Please stay tuned for this helpful information and communicate any questions or concerns directly with your local 4-H professional.

It has been a very long road for our 4-H community since the COVID-19 pandemic landed on our doorsteps last March. In 4-H, learning never stops. We are thankful to have worked virtually with thousands of youth and volunteers over the last year and are very excited to now see you again at in-person 4-H events!

Sincerely,

Quentin Tyler
Director, MSU Extension

Jake DeDecker
State Leader, Michigan 4-H
