Exhibitors should keep in mind that the intent of the 4-H project is a learning experience; the member should be keeping records on the specific pigs identified throughout the teaming process. The purpose of possession dates and identifying animals is to pinpoint which animals are the exhibitors 4-H project for the current year.

Fair registration tips:

- If you have 2 individual pigs you register for market class twice (class 10101)
- All exhibitors are highly encouraged to register for showmanship for their age category.
- Only those qualified should register for home grown class; these pigs must be entered in class 10101 also.
- Exhibitors encouraged to register for record keeping and Tom Stid Award. Please note that these projects can be exhibited in the swine department as well as the record keeping department during Still Exhibit judging.
- Members must have a current YQCA Certification to show/sell at fair.
- Exhibitor will receive their swine NEUS tags when they arrive at Fair. If needed for other shows, NEUS tags are available in the 4-H Office.
