May 2022

We are excited to be back on MSU's campus this June for Exploration Days!

Registration is open and is being done on a first come first served basis. The session listing has been posted on the website (under Participant Information). This is a great resource for families and youth serving organizations who might send youth. Please consider sharing the Exploration Days Facebook page post on your social media platforms for youth who may not 4-H members.

Key points on sessions:

- Sessions have different age requirements or are more advanced. Some sessions are duplicated (asterisks next to session title) and so youth can choose which time slot they want to attend that topic. It is important that youth consider those two items when making choices.
- There are also different maximum number of participants. While those maximums are not listed on the document, participants may want to have 2nd, 3rd and 4th choice in case a session they have interest in becomes full. If you register and it says "waitlisted" please e-mail Veronica at Bolhuisv@msu.edu with at least 3 other choices.
- Some sessions also have other considerations such as downloading an app or wearing long-sleeves or closed toed shoes. Reminders to youth will be sent through the registration system to those enrolled in those sessions, however, it is good to note that when looking at sessions, too.
- This is a great opportunity for youth to try something new! Michigan 4-H Exploration Days is an opportunity to gain new skills and perhaps challenge the comfort zone. This is a wonderful opportunity for youth to attend sessions that might help them experience a career path that might interest them or grow in their personal development.
- When registering pay only the $50.00 deposit, balance will be due in May.
- The registration number is 1000 youth participants with volunteers, staff and other adults making up the remaining registration numbers, bringing us to the estimated total of 1500 total attendees on campus. There will be a waiting list for youth.

Are you interested in being a chaperone for MSU Exploration Day?

Here is what you need to know:

Each county will need to identify 1 chaperone for every 8 youth per gender identity.

Counties will also need to also identify one person of each gender identity to be the Lead Chaperone.

This will be the person responsible for picking up county packets for check-in, turning in nightly bed checks, turning in county check-out paperwork, and serving as the main point of contact for the county.

You can see the role descriptions at one of these two links - Lead Chaperone and Chaperone.

All chaperones will need to be an Active Gold volunteer and be enrolled in 4-H Online. In addition, this year all chaperones will need to complete the 4-H Chaperone Learning Module in Volunteer Central by June 3rd.

Exploration Days-specific, Chaperone Zoom trainings will be provided to cover the basics with chaperones for the event. Please share and encourage your chaperones to save the date for one of these Zoom training sessions on:

- June 2nd from 3-4pm
- June 2nd from 8-9pm
- June 6th from 12-1pm
- June 6th from 6:30-7:30pm

If you are interested in being one of the chaperones or lead chaperone please contact Veronica at bolhuisv@msu.edu.

Dear 4-H poultry participants and volunteers:

Avian Influenza (Bird Flu)

Since February 24, the Michigan Department of Agriculture and Rural Development (MDARD) and the U.S. Department of Agriculture's National Veterinary Services Laboratories have confirmed the discovery of five positive cases of highly pathogenic avian influenza (HPAI) in Michigan. These include non-commercial flocks in Kalamazoo County, Livingston County, Macomb County and Menominee County, as well as domestic parrots at a residence in Washtenaw County. All five are believed to be isolated cases. HPAI has also been identified by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources in wild birds in Macomb, Monroe and St. Clair counties.

MSU Extension and its state partners are continuing to monitor the situation. At this point, there has been no ban on poultry shows, exhibitions and swap meets in Michigan. However, the increasing number of HPAI cases serve as an important reminder that poultry owners and caretakers should follow critical biosecurity measures to defend their birds and flocks.

Good biosecurity measures are especially vital to 4-H families bringing home new poultry projects or introducing new birds to their existing flocks this spring season. MSU Extension encourages all livestock owners to quarantine animals that are new to the facility or have traveled off property. This will reduce the risk of exposing the home herd or flock to any virus or diseases they may have contracted while away from home. In addition, MDARD recommends the following biosecurity measures to all bird caretakers and owners:

- Preventing contact between domestic poultry and wild birds by bringing poultry indoors to a barn/coop or ensuring their outdoor area is fully enclosed.
- Washing your hands before and after handling birds and/or their eggs as well as when moving between different coops.
- Disinfecting boots and other gear when moving between coops.
- Not sharing equipment or other supplies between coops or other farms.
- Cleaning and disinfecting equipment and other supplies between uses. If it cannot be disinfected, discard it.
- Using well or municipal water as drinking water for birds.
- Keeping poultry feed secure so there is no contact between the feed/feed ingredients and wild birds or rodents.
- Don't touch birds to your face.
- Keeping poultry away from areas where food or drink is prepared, served, or stored.
- Monitoring flock for unusual deaths, a drop in egg production, a significant decrease in water consumption, or an increase in sick birds.

If avian influenza is suspected, contact MDARD immediately at 800-292-3939 (daytime) or 517-373-0440 (after-hours).

MDARD also recommends remaining outdoors when cleaning any equipment associated with raising or caring for poultry, such as cages, feed, water containers and other materials. Then, store the cleaned equipment in an area where it cannot be accessed by wild birds or rodents before its next use.

To stay up-to-date with MDARD updates and alerts regarding the status of avian influenza in Michigan, 4-H families can subscribe to receive notifications from MDARD. Visit MDARD's website and click on the "Avian Influenza" link to enter a valid email address to receive notifications whenever there are new developments to report.

As a reminder, HPAI does not present an immediate public health concern and properly handled and cooked poultry products remain safe to consume. For additional information regarding HPAI, visit MSU Extension's avian influenza website.

Sincerely,
Jacob Stieg

Poultry Project News

Here are the order dates for market birds.

Please call Ann Hollister at 685-2301 to place your order.

Poultry	Order Date	Pick Up Date
Heavy Duck	April 15	May 17
Roaster	May 6	June 1
Market (Peking) Duck	May 13	June 14
Broiler	May 27	June 21
Cornish	June 3	June 28

Hey Peeps!!! Can't wait to see all of your faces at the next Poultry Project meeting scheduled for Thursday, May 19th at 7pm---IN PERSON---at the Expo Center. Only a couple more months until the Kalamazoo County Youth Fair and Family Festival. I hope that you have your market chicks ordered (If not---call Ann Hollister at 685-2301 ASAP) and are conditioning your show birds. We will be talking about both of these subjects at the meeting.

Another very important topic---AVIAN INFLUENZA!!! IT IS IMPORTANT THAT WE ALL KEEP OUR BIRDS UNDERCOVER AND SEPARATE FROM WILD BIRDS until the migration and the risk is over. We don't want to have to deal with another NO BIRDS AT THE FAIR LIKE IN 2015 or worse yet, have our birds get sick and have ALL of them put down.

Tips for purchasing and bringing home livestock

Adapted from: www.canr.msu.edu/resources/tips-for-purchasing-and-bringing-home-livestock

Acquiring new stock is exciting whether you are building your herd or flock, or purchasing your annual 4-H project. These tips will help you manage their health and safety by making sure you know the questions to ask before purchasing and the preparations required to bring livestock home.

Assessing Animal Health and Treatment Documentation

When purchasing animals, you should know their history. Ask the following questions:

- When was the animal born?
- What specific vaccinations has the animal been given and when were they given?
- If necessary, was the animal properly castrated and what method was used?
- Have any other treatments been administered to the animal? If so, what is the slaughter withdrawal for the drugs given?
- Have any of the animals on the farm been ill or shown symptoms of illness?
- If acquiring a market animal, what is the approximate weight?

Considerations as You Bring Animals Home

Transporting. Secure a trailer. If you do not own a trailer, make arrangements with someone who can transport animals for you. Be prepared to pay someone to provide transportation, as a courtesy.

Unloading. Make sure that your facility is ready to house your new animals before they arrive. Have a pen identified for new animals to go into with fresh water and appropriate feed. (Feed should be similar to their previous diet; changing to a new diet should be done over a period of time.) Have a clear and direct path to the animals' new pen from the trailer. Make sure that all gates are open or closed, as appropriate, and secured.

Settling in. Quarantine, or separate, new animals for a minimum of 21 days. At minimum, try to avoid nose-to-nose contact, and comingling feeding and watering. Minimize stress on new animals during the quarantine period. If after 21 days, the newly acquired animals have not shown any symptoms of illness, it should be safe to comingling them into your existing herd or flock.

Comingling. Since each species has a social hierarchy, observe animals during comingling and separate if there is risk of injury. Over the course of a day, the herd or flock should settle into a routine that includes the new animals.
