

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY EXTENSION is growing current and future leaders by providing programs that instill young people with the knowledge and skills to become positive agents of change in their communities, country and world.

16,000

Michigan youth engaged in 4-H leadership and civic engagement programs.

49,000

Michigan 4-H youth experiences related to citizenship, leadership, cultural education and communication.

PRIORITY AREAS

Leadership development

Civic education and engagement

Global and cultural competency

IMPACTS

In comparison to before their 4-H experiences, youth engaged in MSU Extension leadership and civic engagement 4-H programs showed significant increases in skills related to conflict resolution, facilitation, civic participation, leadership, communication and cultural competencies. Surveyed participants indicated that:

98%

respect people from different cultures.

94%

try to change things they think are wrong.

92%

could stand up for what they think is right, even if their friends disagreed.

95%

felt everyone on a team was important.

100%

enjoyed learning about people who were different from them.

Data compiled from 2017-2018 Michigan 4-H programs.

canr.msu.edu/4H

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY | Extension

MSU is an affirmative-action, equal-opportunity employer, committed to achieving excellence through a diverse workforce and inclusive culture that encourages all people to reach their full potential. Michigan State University Extension programs and materials are open to all without regard to race, color, national origin, gender, gender identity, religion, age, height, weight, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, marital status, family status or veteran status. Issued in furtherance of MSU Extension work, acts of May 8 and June 30, 1914, in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Jeffrey W. Dwyer, Director, MSU Extension, East Lansing, MI 48824. This information is for educational purposes only. Reference to commercial products or trade names does not imply endorsement by MSU Extension or bias against those not mentioned. The 4-H Name and Emblem have special protections from Congress, protected by code 18 USC 707.