Agenda

Business

- Ad Book – originally expected at first show (5/23).
 - Can delay as long as we allow for two weeks at the printer and one week for assembly.
 - Still aiming for 6/6 show.
- Registrations
 - Sandi Pallas moved to require show registrations and payment by May 1, seconded by Crystal; motion carried.
 - If leaders learn of any hardships for payment, please contact Seth for assistance from MSUE or the Youth Council.
 - At April meeting, Wayne will provide mailing or drop off address, if necessary.
 - Coggins must be submitted to Wayne the night prior to the first show by email or in hard copy.
- Observation Ride
 - Mike has conducted three observation rides for Unleashed already.
 - Michelle has three riders, & Boots N Spurs has one. Mike will work with these riders to make this happen in time for registration.
 - Waive the private ride fee for 2020 as an exception.
- Horse Shows
 - Continue as planned & re-evaluate at April meeting.
 - Mike has emailed Gary Hopp, Metro Parks. Park properties remain open with the exception of buildings. Mike will contact Gary or Ruth again to see if there is any availability for dates in July, August in the event we need to reschedule show(s).
 - Michelle to ask Rod Porter to follow up with Taylor Fabus at MSU on any decision around the 4-H State Horse Shows, including any deferred dates for delegate name submissions by counties this year.
- Insurance
 - Kathy trying to get in touch with insurance company, as premium is due May 4.
 - Premium submission usually includes a list of show dates, including the Warm & Sunny Show.
 - Kathy to ask if we can add dates.
- Judges
 - Lesa has all judges except one trail judge for 6/27.
 - All contracts received.

MSUE – Seth Martin

- No 4-H activities should be conducted in person
- Updating volunteer files, so if you received an email, please contact Seth to set up a quick 5-10 minute interview to fill in any missing interview reports in your file.
- MSUE website & Facebook page offer lots on online activities for youth now.

Roundtable

- Kathy has the stickers for the backs of donated ribbons. Crystal offered to pick them up & affix to ribbons.

Motion to adjourn the meeting by Sandi Pallas, seconded by Amy McSwain; motion carried.

Meeting adjourned at 7:13 pm.
