

MOVING FORWARD WITH EQUITY AND RESILIENCE

OCTOBER – NOVEMBER 2020 | #2020goodfood

2020 Good Food Summit Schedule-at-a-Glance

Thursday, October 8 | 4:00-5:00 pm Good Food Summit Virtual Networking Reception

Join your fellow summit participants in a virtual networking event prior to the start of the Summit series!

In this virtual gathering, you will rotate in small groups with a few optional discussion questions as a way to get to know each other a little. We hope you'll make some connections with the amazing people that attend our Summit!

Register here: https://msu.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJllfuChrDooE92O0h55n6Fu9mC_IPvE01

Monday, October 12 | 10:00 am-12:30 pm Good Food Summit Launch & Keynote with Dr. Ricardo Salvador

- Welcome by MDARD Director Gary McDowell
- Good Food Charter: Beyond 2020
- Keynote Presentation by Dr. Ricardo Salvador, Union of Concerned Scientists

Wednesday, October 14 | 10:00-11:30 am Michigan Good Food Summit Lightning Talks

A fast-paced look at Michigan's food system from many different perspectives!

Group A: Farm & Food Business and Food Access

- Collective Business Entities for Farm and Food Projects
- What Is the MSU Product Center and How Can It Help My Food Business or Farm?
- Food Sovereignty and Empowering Diverse Farmers
- School Food Cart Program

Group B: COVID-19 and Climate Change

- A Little Goes a Long Way: One Business's Approach to Adapting to the Pandemic
- Interdisciplinary Approach to Identifying Climate Change Vulnerabilities
- The Resilience of Michigan's Farmers Markets in Response to COVID-19
- The Ripple Effect of the Farm2Neighbor Program

Thursday October, 15 | 10:00 -11:30 am Grassroots Good Food: How Michigan Residents can work with Elected Officials to Advance Good Food Policy

This session is co-presented with the Michigan Local Food Council Network

- Perspectives from Elected Officials & Local Food Councils

Join Zoom Meeting: <https://msu.zoom.us/j/188860279> (Password: MLFCN)

Join by phone: (646) 876-9923, Meeting ID: 188 860 279

Monday, October 19 | 10:00-11:30 am Finding Resilience in Local Communities during COVID-19

- Nourishing the Soul: A Food & Faith-Based Response to COVID-19
- COVID-19 Resilience: It Takes Locally Owned Grocery Stores

Wednesday, October 21 | 1:00-2:30 PM

Safe Food at All Scales

- Safe Food from Farm to Institution: Buyer Perspectives and Opportunities to Support Diverse Growers
- USDA GroupGAP - Where Are We Now?

Monday, October 26 | 10:00-11:30 am

Full Circle Sustainability: From Food Waste to Fresh Catch

- Designing Waste Out of the Food System
- Eat Safe Fish Detroit

Wednesday, October 28: 10:00-11:30 am

From Jobs to Justice: Innovations for Economic Wellbeing through the Food System

- Quality Food Jobs for Social Justice
- When Food Meets Justice for the Incarcerated: Opportunities for the Michigan Good Food Charter

Monday, November 9 | 10:00-11:30 am

Tech, Tastes and Telling Our Stories: Empowering Youth through Food and Garden Education

Engaging Youth in Food Systems - 3 Lightning Talks

- Developing Virtual Garden Clubs for Young People
- Experiential Sustainability Education: HOPE Gardens and Visions of Food Sovereignty
- Munch Madness: A Fruit and Vegetable Slam Dunk

Digital Storytelling Tips for Creating and Editing Educational Videos

Tuesday, November 10 | 1:00-2:30 PM

Food Access to Food Sovereignty: Addressing Inequities and Supporting Producer Diversity in the Food System

- Addressing Inequities in the Food System: Four perspectives from across Michigan
- Including Immigrants and Refugees in the Community Garden: Lessons Learned from The Garden Project in Lansing, Michigan

Monday, November 16 | 10:00-11:30 am

Exploring Health Equity in the Food System

- Working with Disabled People as Agricultural Based Non-profits: Lessons from the Field
- Culturally Based Nutrition Education and Health Equity

Tuesday, November 17 | 1:00-2:30 pm

MI Good Food Satellite Session: Summit Priority Topics Discussion Groups

Similar to Open-Space, participants will hear a short presentation from each panelist then join a breakout group to further discuss the topic of your choice. This event is free and open to the public, but registration is required. You will be asked to preselect your discussion topic of choice when you register.

Register here: <https://msu.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJAqd-yurjgrE902AZY1FgSD5Al2kBsaVLx6>

Wednesday, November 18 | 10:00-11:30 am

Keeping it Growing: Supporting Farmers During the Pandemic

- Grower Community Check-ins: Tools from Upper Peninsula Food Policy Councils in Response to COVID-19
- Resilient Systems: A COVID-19 Emergency Local Food Relief Fund that Pays Farmers and Supports the Fresh Produce Needs of Food Pantry Networks in Northwest Lower Michigan