

Cultivating holistic solutions to poverty.

Good Food Systems Values

Investing in the Local Food
Economy

Convening Food and Faith
Conversations

Growing Health

Equipping Community
Partners

FARM to Pantry

Peach Ridge Farms
Est. 2002

NEW CITY
URBAN FARM

THE Other way
MINISTRIES

THE PANTRY
Feeding mind, body & soul

NORTH KENT connect
DISCOVER WHAT'S POSSIBLE

helping today. building hope for tomorrow
SECOM
RESOURCE CENTER

-
- A top-down view of a wire basket filled with fresh eggs. The basket is lined with a light-colored cloth and sits on a bed of green grass. The eggs are mostly brown, with one white egg visible near the bottom center. The basket has two wooden handles, one on the left and one on the right.
- Purchase CSAs at full price
 - 12 week cohort
 - Average 15 members
 - General pantry absorbs shares
 - Farm field trips
 - Embedded community organizing

FARM TO PANTRY

Our 2017
Community Impact

$21,000 invested in
6 Michigan farms

73+ Families participated in Community Supported Agriculture cohorts with cooking, prepping, and food preservation education as well as food systems education

100% of families in the CSA cohorts say they're eating more fruits and veggies since taking the CSA class

91%

Say they have more confidence cooking in the kitchen since taking the CSA class

94% desire to gain more tools and training to influence our local food system

88%

Of families now have a better understanding of how food effects their health

90%

Of families have a better understanding of food justice and the U.S. Food System

