St. Joseph County 4-H Member CODE OF CONDUCT

The Michigan State University Extension program (of which 4-H is a part) prides itself on providing quality educational programs for youths. The primary purpose of this Code of Conduct is to ensure the safety and well-being of all participants.

All 4-H members in St. Joseph County MSU Extension activities will:

- Accept their responsibility to represent St. Joseph County 4-H and MSU Extension programs with dignity and pride by being positive role models.
- Conduct themselves in a courteous and respectful manner and exhibit good sportsmanship.
- Respect, adhere to and enforce the rules, policies and guidelines established by St. Joseph County 4-H and MSU Extension programs.
- Abstain from and not tolerate physical or verbal abuse, profanity or threatening behavior.
- Comply with equal opportunity and antidiscrimination laws.
- Abstain from criminal activities.
- Under no circumstances, possess, sell or consume alcohol or possess, sell or use controlled substances or use any form of tobacco at an MSU Extension activity or event.
- Under no circumstances, attend or participate in an MSU Extension activity or event under the influence of alcohol and/or controlled substances.
- Operate machinery, vehicles and other equipment in a responsible manner.
- Accept and respect decisions made by the 4-H Youth Council and MSU Extension Staff.
- Under no circumstances steal or misuse 4-H property and/or donated funds.

It is important that all Michigan State University Extension members comply with the St. Joseph County 4-H Code of Conduct.

I understand that failure to comply with any component of the code or participation in other inappropriate conduct while being of 4-H age and participating as a 4-H member in St. Joseph County, may lead to disciplinary action and/or dismissal from the 4-H MSU Extension program.
