

Community Food Systems Educational Programs

Potential Audiences: School Boards, PTO/PTA, Planning Boards, Food Service Directors, Health Care Providers, Garden Clubs & Service Clubs

SCHOOL/COMMUNITY GARDEN WORKSHOPS:

- Starting & Sustaining a School Garden: Annual all day workshop for professionals, parents and volunteers involved in school gardens.
- Teacher Professional Development Workshops: Assist professional staff to integrate the school garden into the curriculum with lesson plans and activities for experiential learning and meeting educational standards.
- Garden Establishment: Provide site visit & evaluation, and assistance forming structural organization to support school /community gardens.

FREE PROGRAMS FOR COMMUNITY GROUPS:

- Understanding Community Food Systems: A primer on local food systems concepts and benefits.
- Food Hubs: An introduction to food hubs and their potential benefits to the local food system.

*To schedule a workshop or for more information, please contact
Kristine Hahn, Community Food Systems Educator
at 248-802-4590 or hahnk@anr.msu.edu*

